PHILIPPIANS 4:7

August 7, 2016

Who Will Witness?
Philippians 1:12-14

12 Now I want you to know, brothers and sisters, that what has happened to me has actually served to advance the gospel.

13 As a result, it has become clear throughout the whole palace guard and to everyone else that I am in chains for Christ.

14 And because of my chains, most of the brothers and sisters have become confident in the Lord and dare all the more proclaim the gospel without fear.

The first century church had a hard time gaining momentum because of persecution. The atmosphere is heating up even more towards Christians as Paul writes this letter to the Philippian Church. You would think persecution would drive them deeper into hiding, but according to this letter, it made them bolder. People started speaking out for Christ with great encouragement. Just because Paul was “locked-up” waiting to appeal to Caesar, didn’t stop the proclamation of the Gospel. May this be said of you....of us....that we depended on no other to tell the message “for” us. We courageously and fearlessly proclaimed it for Jesus.

March On,

Andrew
